INCLUDED IN THIS MAILING:

1. Second 2015 ROTA newsletter
2. Booking forms for the July, August, September and October activities

The winter season lends itself to staying in - not so for our Spirituality Day held in June. Members gathered together to enjoy the day inspired by Alex Nelson. The theme for the day was "Living with Uncertainty". We were once again graciously welcomed by the Sisters of Mercy, Parramatta.

Some comments received after our outing in April to Elizabeth Farm included: "The outing was beautiful! The guide was good. The place was very interesting and the lunch delicious!" Comments like these are always terrific to hear!

Lunch at Dooleys awaits us in July. It's always nice to relax there and enjoy each other's company.

In August we shall tour the State Library in Sydney and our Spring outing sees us enjoying a ferry trip to Manly.

October's outing has been revised and we are now visiting the Blue Mountains Cultural Centre and City Art Gallery located next to the new Katoomba Library.

Don't forget to note the outing dates in your diary and get your reply forms back in as soon as you can!

The Next Aged Care Seminar will be held on Wednesday 21 October at The Good Samaritan Centre, Glebe.
